

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I, the undersigned, am Leendert Jacobus de Jong and I am a practising physiotherapist. I was born February 23, 1953 in Amsterdam, The Netherlands, and am presently living at Singel 82, 1015 AC Amsterdam.

I graduated as a physiotherapist in 1976 at the Academy for Physiotherapy of Bloemendaal. After my studies I worked in a hospital for a few years, after which I worked in a specialized health center for psycho-somatic illnesses.

Two years ago I came in contact with the Rajneesh Therapy Institute in which I learned about the vision of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh on health, dealing with all the aspects of human life.

This has given me new insights about health care, and has influenced my work as a physiotherapist deeply. I feel Bhagwan's work has outstanding significance for all on this world today.
