

To whom it may concern,

After having practised as a physiotherapist for several years with a.o. heavy handicapped people, cancerpatients and many people with chronic diseases I came to know about Bhagwan and His work and went to visit Him.

Although I met several people who contributed a lot in their work in healthcare it was a tremendous experience to be in His presence, and it opened my eyes on how I had been working as a physiotherapist.

The insights that Bhagwan gave me in healthcare, society, illness and health meant a lot to me and contributed enormous in my working with patients.

I can see now how important Bhagwan's presence on this earth, all the words He spoke and are now written in His books, are

In Holland one becomes more and more open for a big change in healthcare.

Bhagwan, who is so powerfull in his guidance,

His love, could contribute a lot to people who are open for change and improving of healthcare, giving handicapped and ill people a way out of their suffering.

And I can see that more and more people start appreciating Bhagwan more and more and recognize His importance for this earth.

Yours sincerely
