Dear Sirs,

I am glad to write down that the indian Master Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, is a truly religious Master.

I am presently reading one of his books from his seven years teaching in India, in french "Le livre des Secrets", where I am discovering a whole new approach to life which I would call religious.

It seems important for his disciples, considering his delicate health, that Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh may remain in quiet and healthy surroundings, as I know he enjoys now in Oregon, USA. Such an individual is certainly of great value for all of us, and a benediction for the host country.

With my best regards,

Sylvie Messinger
