To whom it may concern ...

It was in 1978 that i got to know Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. Hearing his lectures via tapes i was deeply touched, even though his message wasn't really new to me. It just seemed as if he was putting into words what i had deep down known all my life.

As a journalist for different illustrated magazines i had soon arranged a journey to Poona. In spite of my initial hesitation - i hated the idea of belonging to a "sect" - i became a sannyasin. I was simply overwhelmed by the atmosphere of love around Bhagwan. And i have felt it as a great privilege ever since to wear his mala and "advertine" Bhagwan through my orange, red and pink clothes.

He is showing me that the only way out is in: that love and meditation are the best medicines to cure a mad world.

And he tries to make it visible for as many people as possible by creating a beautiful place like Rajneeshpuram.

There west and east, science and spirituality, meet and melt. It really works!

And please, let it continue.

If a Master like Bhagwan chooses you as his host, America, you're a blessed country ...
