

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN :

Bhagwan is among us and I wish to share my joy with you. It is so simple. After many years of search and disappointment and momentary joys I have come home to Rajneeshpuram. The miracle of Bhagwan, as I see it, is the utter ordinariness he offers us. The celebration of simple day to day life. Watching him drive by, I look around myself and see this miracle happening.

For anyone who wonders what it might have been like to follow Jesus or sit before Buddha, or any of the other extraordinary strangers who rarely come amongst us, Bhagwan is here. He is the essence, the absolute perfection of a human being. Before sitting in His presence I had no feeling of what life is.

By living and working in his commune I slowly come to feel the unity of this existence. Simply focussing my energy on whatever needs to be done and life becomes a meditation, a discipline, a benediction. Without Bhagwan this could not happen for me. Seeing that it has happened to him, a man like myself, makes me realise it could happen to me. He exists in such exquisite harmony that it seems to spread in his wake and rub off on all who come near him. He unravels the mysteries and gives freely to those who are curious. The nonsense that has created such a stench around religion, disappears in his presence. It is impossible to express the love and gratitude I have for him.

Love,

Sw. Bodhi Samma
