To whom it may concern

My name is Reinhard Peterwerth. I am born in 1940. Now I am living in Munich working as a lawyer in my own office.

I studied laws at the universities of Freiburg/Br., Berlin, Cologne and Bonn. In 1966 I spent 6 months at the Cámara de Comercio Colombo-Alemana (German-Columbian Chamber of Commerce) in Bogotá/Colombia. In 1969 I obtained a 1-year doctorate scholarship of the DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) in Bonn for Guatemala, where I elaborated a doctorate thesis about the Central American Common market. This thesis was accepted by the University of Bonn (title: Das vertragswerk des Zentralamerikanischen Gemeinsamen Marktes - "The Treaties of the Central American Common market"). In 1973 I obtained the title of a Doctor Juris of the University of Bonn. My thesis was published by the "Stiftung Preußischer Kulturbesitz" (Foundation of Prussian Culture) in Berlin within the series "Bibliotheca Ibero-Americana".

In August 1980 I was travelling in India for holidays. By chance I met Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh in Poona. Instantly I was fascinated by the man. For 4 weeks I listened to the lectures of Bhagwan day by day, never missing a lecture. For me Bhagwan is one of the greatest men I ever met. He gave to me an impression of real humanity. In his lectures he taught his audience an universal love and how to make this world a peaceful place, where all nations and races can live in tolerance one to another. Every country, where Bhagwan is staying, should be proud of the fact that one of the greatest men lives within its borders.
