To whom it may concern

- 1) I am a B.A. Oxford + Barrister, at Law practising in Birmingham. I hold a part-time judicial appointment in the Industrial Tribunal.
- 2) I have no first hand knowledge of Bhagwan, + rely on the literature of his I have read + the many reports of his activities in the press. He is clearly a man of vision, compassion + understanding, with the ability to appeal to a wide range of people. He has brought well-being + happiness to a close friend of mine who has found a spiritual home with him after much searching - no small achievement, in my view.
- 3) His wide appeal for people of many nations + his pastoral qualities mark him as an international leader of renown.
