

Heidelberg 17/7/81

To whom it may concern,

I am a German teacher in a secondary technical school and my name is Gudrun Langner. Although I am not a disciple of Baghwan and don't intend to become one, I consider him as a unique person, a real master. I've read many of his books, and they have helped me to open my heart, to love people and so to cope with my work easier and more efficiently.

Sincerely

Gudrun Langner
