To whom it may concern,

I am working at an office for Health education with an Adult-education University Degree as a coördinator of innovation of Health Education in Schools in Amsterdam. During my study (in which I did scientific Social Psychologie research at strategies of innovation and Health Education) I was confronted with the books and tape-readings of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. After two years of exploration the value of this Master, I became a disciple of Him. Since that moment with (still) more concentration, effectiveness and pleasure I do my ordinary work.

The presence of this living Master and the possibility of visiting Him in a healthy, free country is very important for me and many others. His devices of inner grow with positive social and material consequents are of immense value for the people all over the world. This combination of Eastern spirituality and Western technology and luxury is unique in the world. I hope you will support and enjoy this experience. With high respect,

drs. (Ph.D.) P. Hansson,
