

Gopal Venu
formally Charles Staples

To whom it may concern,

I wish to clarify my position as regards Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh.

I took saanyas, (formally recognised Rajneesh as my spiritual master) in November 1981, some six months after He stopped speaking publicly.

I see His silence as a development from public utterance, not, as it may superficially appear, as an empty regression.

The term " heart to heart communion " has been coined for such an activity. The words may sound trite, but how else to describe the very real communication I feel in his presence.

Sincerely,

Gopal Venu
