To whom it may concern:

August 7, 1983

I would like to express my views on Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh to perhaps assist in conveying that he is a most exceptional person, certainly worthy of having the right to remain in the U.S. as a valuable asset.

As a non-follower, but a friend of several I have known a long time, I've experienced first hand the progress of Rajneeshpuram and those involved in its amazing growth and energy. I feel the life style and attitudes of those I've seen offer an alternative to anything I have known, and although it is not my wish to become a member of Bhagwan's following, I respect those who are involved.

Bhagwan's teachings I feel are sensible, clear and without anything I find objectionable in any way. The movement surrounding Bhagwan, because of the many facets different from what most Americans are used to, is a unique addition to our already diverse culture.

Sincerely,
