TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

As a former student of psychology with a degree from the University of Florida, I can vouch for Bhagwan's extraordinary and unparalleled understanding of human problems on a personal and social level. Not only is he able to illuminate these subjects, he is able to devise solutions. History will show Bhagwan to be one of those seminal men who help usher in a new era.

As a country whose very greatness has depended on the quality of people who have been welcomed to enter, America can only benefit from Bhagwan's presence. We need renewed vitality in the psychological sciences.

Love.
