Dear Sir,

I am a Diplome-engineer in printing technics and publications. For five years I have worked for the 'Stuttgarter Zeitung', a daily newspaper and another year for 'Franckh Verlag', a big scientific publishing house. For business reasons I have to visit each year the Frankfurt book fair. There I noticed a growing interest in the publications of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. There are also more and more books in German of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh coming out.

When I studied His publications and experienced His meditations I came to know that He is a man of immense intelligence, knowledge and wisdom. His message reaches more and more of the intelligent young people in Germany and all over the world. And He has become a spiritual teacher of international recognition.

Even now, when He's silent, His words have great influence on my work and my life. He has become my religious Master now, and whether He speaks or is silent, I am infinitely grateful to be in His presence.

Sincerely yours
