To Whom It May Concern.

I have known Bhagvan Rajmesth for the past 10 yrs through his lectures and from my unde and cousins. I have found him to be extremely learned in all aspects of several religions existing to day. His ideas are extremely thought provoking and at times controversial. He has demonstrated a profound knowledge in human psychology as it applies to modern man. In fact, I feel, he has an exceptional ability to analyse and influence the psychic of a heterogenous group. I have yet to come across a psychologist or a psychiatrist with such a rare ability. In today's highly scientific and technical world there is a growing need of religious leadership which can be fulfilled by men like Bhagwan Rajmesth.
