To Whom It May Concern,

I have been studying and practicing meditation for eight years. Over this time I have read and come in contact with many teachers and methods of meditation.

In December of 1981 I was introduced to the writings of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. At that time many things that had remained unexplained by other methods became clear through Rajneesh's methods of meditation and his explanations of meditation in general.

After surrounding myself with religious teachings from all over the world for the past eight years, it was not until July 1982, when I sat in silence with Rajneesh that I truly experienced a religious teacher. The profound experience of sitting in silence with Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh has been unequalled in eight years of study.

In my experience He is an extraordinary teacher of meditation.

Sincerely,

Deva Shravan
