TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

My name is Swami Veet Masaru, a.k.a. Masaru Kaneko.

For about 12 years, I was working at a marine development company in Tokyo. For the last 2 years I worked as a manager for accounting.

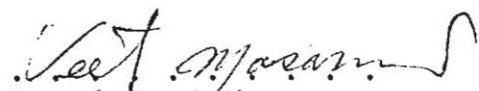

In 1977 I read one of His books which is translated into Japanese. I really was impressed by the book. In a few days I started to practice His meditation. I'd been practicing everyday for about 3 months and realised that meditation really set me free from the tensions which I always have been carrying and during the silent parts in the meditation I could feel His presence with joy.

Presently I am a center leader of the Meditation Center in Tokyo, Japan and have been working with many people in the center. People are always working hard but lively and lovely under His guidance.

I participated in the festival this year and saw in the satsang, at his afternoon drive, and everywhere in His presence people were so happy and delightful.

I felt this is really the place which Bhagwan called "Buddhafield", new energy field which in His presence people can easy to grow.

Sincerely yours,

Swami Veet Masaru
