

To Whom it may concern,

Since I have returned from my visit to Rajneeshpuram, the residence of the enlightened master Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, I feel I want to write you about the necessity of a permanent visa for this man. The experience I have had there in central Oregon is to my belief of such an immense value to all the world that I really want to ask you to take a closer look at this matter. Rajneeshpuram is a Buddhafield. A Buddhafield is a place where people live and work under the guidance of a living spiritual master.

I myself live in such a Buddhafield in Holland, and although I am not in the immediate presence of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh I feel, very strong, his presence in my daily life. Every day again I feel that he is my master, and not only that. This world in which we live is in such a great need of spiritual growth, there is so much that everyone can learn from this man, Bhagwan, that truly with all my heart I hope that he will be given the opportunity to continue his work in America, in Rajneeshpuram.

What all of us need, is an insight in what we are doing, how we are living and what brings us to create a world like ours, a world full of wars and fighting where man is striving for prestige and power rather than looking for true happiness.

I am inspired, every day again and anew, to investigate into my own relation with my work, with the people I live with and with myself. I believe that the religion which Bhagwan teaches is a true one. One which is by no means easy, not superficial. To take a real sincere and truth full look at one self, that takes a lot of courage and understanding. That is my experience in this Buddhadia in Holland of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. And I wish all the world the opportunity to share this looking inside with all of us. Bhagwan teaches a life where one is responsible, and where one can live in harmony with one's own being, and with nature. This is what I believe this world needs, and I therefore ask you to give Bhagwan the space he needs to work with those who want to work with him. It has proved that his health has improved very much since he came to your country and he has never been so well. Therefore, please take this beautiful man in your country to let him do his work and give the world what it needs.

Yours Sincerely,

Swami Nirdosh Sadhu
