

Amsterdam, August 4,

To whom it may concern.

Dear Sirs,

Since two and a half year I call myself a disciple of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. After hearing about Him and reading from Him, I just couldn't wait to meet Him. (At that time He was living in Poona, India) I felt so clearly that this man was somebody extraordinary, who would give the world something of tremendous importance.

Being in His presence, in Poona as well as the two times I was at the religious festivals in Rajneeshpuram, Oregon, is something very precious to me. I become aware of a great unconditioned love and an overwhelming silence when I am near Him. This man seems to create a loving and harmonious atmosphere around Him, where people can find themselves in great peace and happiness.

Also in my own life, since I've become one of His followers, I experience every day a deeper and deeper going love and silence, which I try to express in my daily work and in my relationship with other people, in fact in my relationship with the whole world.

Somehow, I feel a warm and deep connection with this man, and it inspires me in my daily life. My relationship with Him is not disturbed by the fact that He doesn't talk with words with His disciples any more. The communion is happening on a different level beyond words, I can experience His love and silence, from which rises also my creativity in daily life, from which rises ~~the~~ my aliveness, my celebration of the fact that I exist, and that is something of which I'm getting more and more aware of and somehow Bhagwan is helping me with that, is showing me the way, without words though, but the more with His silence.

Yours Truly
