To whom it may concern.

I met Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh through friends of mine who had become His disciples in Poona, and through some of His books. I felt compelled to meet Him because His words had to do with me, with my whole life.

Now ever more I feel Him as the "Master". At the July Festival in Rajneeshpuram this year through His silent presence He communicated to me a great love for life, for nature and for people, a love so strong as to turn everything into positive.

His non-verbal communication with us is what reaches deepest into me. It reminds me of something ancient and forgotten, something which has to do with the senses, touching, hearing, smelling, seeing and tasting. Words only cover up patterns, they convey judgements and cause wounds, pain. Millions of words confuse me and carry me away from my essence and reality. Bhagwan's presence in Rajneeshpuram has a vital fragrance, it is love.
