

8/8/83.

To Whom it May Concern

I took part at the First Annual World Celebration, 23rd June, 1983. I had never seen Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh before. The fact that Bhagwan does not speak has not hindered my conviction with being a disciple of a master.

For me Bhagwan's silence is stronger than any words he could say. His presence is a lesson to me.

He is such a strong, gentle being and the best way he can just be is to be, without words.

It is so easy to judge a man on his words.

Sitting with Bhagwan I don't need any words to feel his message to me.

Blessings
