

To whom it may concern,

the main:
getting clear,
becoming straight,
courageous enough to be oneself
risking and showing taking the chance or faking it because it's all on you.
There's nothing as wonderful in the world as cookies,
no sweeter temptation since Bhagwan.
Feeling that transformation is happening!
You nevvver know how deep he will cut you,
when you come near to him,
but pain will change into sweetness:
candies of enlightenment sometimes they have a bitter heart which is going to have a sweet center. - so what.

There is nothing to loose except everything, there is nothing to drop but the master there is nothing to find but the master key - give it a try.
We are worshipping in the army now,
killing with love,
loving while beating it.
I love you, yet I can't stand your face, still:
looking into your eyes I'll find him.
I am cleaning the floor and it is like creating a painting, drying the dishes feels like shining the shoes of my beloved.

Oh, it's so religious:
Gacchamis are peaks of the day,
it's like putting my head in his lab
and he wraps me in the wonder of existence, showering rose petals.
Feeling like a child which is joining the dance of friends:
She was looking for a while from the outside,
then stepped forward,
and now the delicious feeling,
the circle opens and you become a part.
Sharing and individuation
two sides of the same coin.
